

Membership Application Form

Please fill in the appropriate information in sufficient detail to apply to each of the Idaho Professional Archaeological Council (IPAC) membership criteria for the level of membership sought, Professional or Associate. You may attach additional information in support of your application. Alternate to this form, applications for membership may simply be submitted in vita, resume, or other equivalent document styles.

Section 2 of the IPAC Bylaws (see <http://www.idarchaeology.com/BYLAWS.pdf>) defines Professional Members as archaeologists who are or have been engaged in preserving, recovering, or interpreting archaeological resources in Idaho, and who meet IPAC's qualification standards.

Professional Members

a. Qualifications

- i. Minimum of a BA or BS degree in anthropology, history, or a related discipline, and
- ii. Minimum of twelve months professional archaeological experience.

Please review Article II of the IPAC Bylaws. Then, please indicate appropriate degree(s) and granting institution(s) and provide sufficient information to indicate professional experience to minimally and cumulatively meet or to exceed the 12-month threshold of practice, such as length and affiliation of employment, plus substantive enough detail (e.g., description of responsibilities or role, projects, and/or task performed) to indicate the "professional" and "archaeological" nature of that experience. The information provided below should provide a current, but brief biological summary of your applicable education, training, work history, and career; by so doing it may be adequately definable as a curriculum vitae:

Section 2 of IPAC Bylaws defines Associate Members as archaeological technicians, students, and avocational archaeologists interested in preserving, recovering, or interpreting archaeological resources in Idaho, and who meet IPAC's qualification standards.

Associate Members

a. Qualifications

- i. Interest in Idaho archaeology.

Please review Article II of the IPAC Bylaws. Then, please describe what your interest in Idaho archaeology is. Indication of your experience with archaeology may be used to support your application and may provide relevant examples of interest; however, any example of personal interest may be used, as long as it is pertinent to the topic of Idaho archaeology:
